

Chapter-By-Chapter Bible Reading Devotional
Grace Assembly of God

Scripture:	Genesis 5	Title:	“Walk with Him”
Author:	Ps Jadene Ng
Summary of Chapter:	Generations came and went. The forefathers lived many years, passed their legacy to their children and died. Among them stood out Enoch for he walked with God.
Key Verses (NLT):		How does it speak to me?
23 Enoch lived 365 years, 24 walking in close fellowship with God. Then one day he disappeared, because God took him.		So I’m asking myself: how can I walk in close fellowship with God? Not that I want to be taken away early but that I might truly know Him. Are my days filled with thoughts of Him or mostly of myself? What can I do or what posture do I need to adopt to remind myself more of my Creator, my Heavenly Father each day? Like I shared earlier, each time I take on a new and especially difficult task, I do stop and pray for His help. I recognize that I can’t just use my own wisdom and own effort alone. I desire for His enablement and so, even in whatever I’m learning and doing, I walk in closer fellowship with Him because I lean on Him and I rely on Him.
