EMBRACING THE SUCCESSION

An Interview with Pastor Calvin Lee

For any establishment, a planned leadership transition is very important. It serves to prevent any disruption to the smooth running of the organisation and ensures its continued success as well. From the time Pastor Calvin Lee took over as Senior Pastor of Grace Assembly of God, succession was already on his mind as he knew the importance of always being prepared for the future.

"Not only is leadership transition important, it must also be intentional and Spirit-inspired," he said.

For those reasons, Pastor Calvin is thankful that the Lord has directed this whole succession-planning process that will culminate in an official installation ceremony on 31 December.

"God's hand was clearly involved in this whole process, including His prompting of Pastor Wilson Teo and preparing of Pastor Wilson's heart towards this matter."

For Pastor Wilson, moving to Grace Assembly would represent a major shift in his life and ministry, and he must be convinced that this was God's leading as well.

"The way both of us ended up meeting was evidence of the strong divine hand of God and for this reason, I feel a sense of restedness," said Pastor Calvin.

The date for the actual transition was announced at the end of June earlier this year and Gracians, including the church leadership and staff, have by and large come to accept and wholeheartedly embrace this succession. "We are all believing God for a fresh new season ahead," he said.

Pastor Calvin said that both he and Pastor Wilson have been working closely in this transition period to ensure a smooth and seamless handover so that Grace Assembly will move forward with continued strength and vigour.

"Since July, I have been slowly coming down from the mountain, so to speak, while Pastor Wilson has been slowly making the ascent," he added.

No Definite Plans After Stepping Down

Pastor Calvin confirmed that he has made no plans for the near future after stepping down as Senior Pastor. "My leaving the post is not because I have a plan or an offer from elsewhere," he said. "It is only to allow for the leadership succession which has always been important to me. The well-being of the church is like that of our own physical well-being; we don't wait for a need to arise before we take care of it."

Pastor Calvin revealed that he and Sister Charis have had no extended break in over 40 years of ministry. Come January, they will be able to enjoy up to six months of just taking a breather to rejuvenate as they prepare for whatever God may lead them to thereafter.

"No doubt, this was a huge decision, and we are thankful that the decision has been made. God has been very good to me as well as to our church, and I just want to do what is best for Grace Assembly which I have served for 30 years.

"We are more than grateful for everything. Now, it is time to step down amid wonderful and enriching memories. Meanwhile, we are entering into an exciting season as our journey of faith continues," he said, adding that Grace Assembly will remain their home church.

"Looking ahead, Grace Assembly of God will continue to move strongly as a missional family church under the capable leadership of Pastor Wilson, who will lead under the anointing of the Holy Spirit with all his heart.

"Next year, Grace Assembly will celebrate our 70th anniversary and Pastor Wilson is who God has ordained to lead this new season. Our destiny is to be missional with a strong outward focus on touching lives, winning souls and expanding God's kingdom at home and beyond."

On 31 December, Grace Assembly will hold a Thanksgiving-cum-Installation Service at 7.30pm at Grace@Tanglin (GI).

GRACE MISSIONAL COLLEGE MODULE IN OCTOBER 2019

BIBT 424: Hebrews

Professor: Dr Jerry Horner

Dates and time:

24–25 October: 7–10pm

26 October: 9am–12pm

Venue: Grace@Tanglin, L3 Emmaus

This course explains the background, purpose, structure and content of the Book of Hebrews. It is divided into two sections. The first part is on the superiority of the Son in His person and work (Heb. 1:10-10:18) and the second part is the practical application of the superiority of the Son in the lives of believers (10:19-13:25). The exhortations ministered to the believers at that time who faced persecution and were tempted to turn away from Christ. The study of the Book of Hebrews encourages us to stand strong in our faith in Jesus who is superior over everything and the trust we can put in Him, no matter what.

Dr Jerry Horner, received a Th. D degree from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, and has served as dean of the School of Theology at Oral Roberts University, and as founding dean of the School of Divinity at Regent University, USA. He is the author of many books and articles in theological and educational journals, commentaries, biblical encyclopedias and dictionaries.

OCTOBER Prayer Pointers

This month, we want to uphold the social and political crisis in Hong Kong in prayer even as weeks of protests show no sign of abating still.

1. Pray against the unrest and the spirit of violence hitting the Hong Kong streets. Many clashes took place between the police and the protestors during the riots. Pray for God's intervention to bring such clashes to a halt and that by His mighty hand, He protects the lives of the civilians in the midst of such conflicts.
2. Pray for wisdom, humility and courage for the people of Hong Kong, the government and the Church to handle the situation in a right and effective manner. Pray that healthy ways will be sought to navigate the divisions and bring about agreement. Pray that the people of Hong Kong will love one another in the midst of their differences in opinions and positions.
3. Pray that the Hong Kong government has discernment and wisdom to handle the demands of the protest movement. Pray that the Hong Kong government will be able to find ways to address the discontent in society and to look for good and right solutions to help the people of Hong Kong. Pray that trust and cooperation will return to the hearts of the Hong Kong people for their government.
4. Pray that the Church in Hong Kong will not join in the protest movement but will unite in prayer. In upholding justice, she will not resort to human wisdom but will rely on the wisdom of the Holy Spirit and the sovereignty of the Lord.
5. Pray for peace to return to the land of Hong Kong soon.

Grace Parenting Network presents...

FAITH ABANDONMENT

Is there something we can do to prevent it?

"We got married in church, have our kids and dedicated them in church. We are a Christian family. We did everything right to bring up our children in the fear of the Lord. Our children grew up in Sunday School, heard all the Bible stories, moved on to youth service and one day, they broke the most devastating news to us... "I do not subscribe to the faith!"

Does this sound familiar?

What can parents do, apart from praying, and keeping their children in the faith?

What can the youth pastors and leaders do to help young people keep their faith?

Is it just an individual's choice or can we all play a part? After all, if it takes a village to raise a child, should it not take a church to raise a faithful follower of Christ?

Who is this for?

All Christian Parents,

- whose children have left the faith,
- who are raising second generation Christians and want to prevent them from leaving the faith.
- Youth pastors and leaders who work with parents to help the young people, not just stay in church but also stay in the faith.

THE SPEAKERS

Jason Wong

Jason is known in Singapore as the founder of two national movements – the Yellow Ribbon Project in 2004 and the Dads for Life movement in 2009. He is the Chairman of the Board of Focus on the Family Singapore. He was formerly a Senior Director with the Ministry of Social and Family Development. Prior to that, he was the Deputy Director of the Singapore Prison Services and CEO of Singapore Corporation of Rehabilitative Enterprises (SCORE). He spent 24 years in the public service helping prisoners, abused children and youths-at-risk. As chairman of Focus on the Family (Singapore), he is involved in upstream preventive work championing fathering and family. Jason has been married for over 25 years and is a loving, involved father to two young adult children. He is also the author of the book "Trash of Society – setting captives free."

Joseph & Joni Oh

Married for 26 years, Joseph & Joni have two boys, aged 23 and 19 and a 21-year-old girl. The Lord has been opening opportunities for them to reach out to parents in Singapore. Their individual growing-up experiences fuel their passion to restore men and women, renew marriages and impact the next generation of families. The couple spend almost 24/7 together working as financial consultants and serving at Renewal Christian Church, where they co-lead a cell group and helm the father's prayer altar and women's prayer group.

Joseph & Joni, whose teenage son had gone rebellious and left church but came back to the family and the faith after 3-4 years. Both of them had shared their journey at various Christian platforms.

The Prayer Of A Desperate Parent Series

By Uma Rudd Chia

HELPING OUR KIDS DEAL WITH THEIR EVER-CHANGING EMOTIONS

At different stages of our kids' lives, they learn to deal with diverse and overwhelming emotions. As parents, we try to protect our kids from what the world deems as "negative" emotions. But as I raise my children, I've come to realise that the emotions the world deems as "negative", such as sadness, guilt and concern, become intensified when we have Jesus as our Lord and Saviour.

That's because our conscience comes alive. We become sensitive to the things that dishonour God, and there's a constant need to humble ourselves before God, and ask Him for forgiveness and grace to live righteous lives.

We need to teach our kids how not to look at these emotions as positive or negative, but to embrace and manage them as God-given, and with God's help, to channel them towards pleasing God. When they respond to the voice of their conscience, it guides them to walk before God with a pure heart.

Matthew 5:8 (NIV) says, 'Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.' We want to raise kids who can see God in every situation—good and bad. But these emotions can be overwhelming and they create tension within the kids. Our kids need to know how to respond and channel these emotions towards becoming better people for God.

Here are three typical emotional tension points and some principles to help your kids handle them right.

1. GUILT VS CONDEMNATION

Romans 8:1 (NIV) says, 'There is now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus.' But condemnation and guilt are not the same. It's good to feel bad when you've done something wrong. It means your conscience hasn't been seared—it is alive and kicking.

When Sarah told me she had done something wrong and asked how to get rid of her guilt, I recited 1 John 1:9 (NIV), 'If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just and will forgive us our sins.' We talked through what she had done wrong—she had hurt her friend and felt bad about it. I asked her if she had apologised and tried to make it right. She said yes, repeatedly.

Then we bowed our heads and prayed. Sarah told God she was sorry and asked Him to help her be a better person and prayed for her friend to feel better about the whole thing. Then she opened her eyes full of tears, smiled and said, "I feel much better, Mum." We then agreed to put it aside and move on. I was glad that she was conscious of her wrongdoing. It means she will think before hurting someone next time.

Children are not too young to make their wrong right with the person they've hurt and ask God for forgiveness when they do something wrong. As parents, we need to inculcate this as a good, Godly habit in them.

2. DIVINE DISCONTENT VS DISSATISFACTION

Our kids need a holy discontent—a need to better themselves to become who God wants them to be. In a previous issue, I wrote about a conversation with my son feeling stressed because he wants to do well in life. He has a constant desire to make himself better. That's because within each one of us is a raging battle between our need for convenience and God's seed of destiny in our heart. Within our children, their spirit man is pushing them towards excellence. Their spirit man knows what God has called them to do. God has put destiny in their hearts. But it's not easy when their human nature is pushing for convenience, urging them to take the easy way out.

Even in our Christian walk, Paul says in Philippians 2:12-13 (NIV) to 'work out your salvation with fear and trembling'. Here Paul is not talking about working for our salvation—Jesus has paid the price on the cross for that. He's talking about working out our salvation—in obedience to God.

John Piper, the renowned theologian, reminds us that obedience for Christians is neither the rock upon which our salvation rests nor the optional ribbon placed upon eternal life. It is essential. It is arduous. And it is empowered by God. The desire and need to obey God isn't just about observing a set of God-made rules; it's about finding our God-destined purpose and living it out to the fullest. And in that process, there will be a constant divine discontent pushing us to this purpose. We need to help our children see this.

The sad truth is, our kids can sometimes mistake dissatisfaction for discontent. Proverbs 19:23 says God satisfies us. He satisfies our soul with every good thing. Dissatisfaction comes from a lack of gratitude and is not the same as divine discontent. Where discontent pushes you from your slumber, dissatisfaction puts you in the seat of stagnation where you are so busy complaining about your situation that you refuse to look for the door out.

When your kids murmur about things, push them to seek God and find a way out. Help them with God's grace and turn their dissatisfaction into divine discontent.

3. FEAR OF GOD VS FEAR OF MAN

We teach our children that fear is bad. But not all fear is bad. 'The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom.' (Proverbs 9:10; NIV). Fearing the consequences of our actions stops us from doing stupid things that could cause us our lives. Fear of burning ourselves stops us from jumping into a bonfire. But the Bible also says that the fear of man is a snare, a trap. We must teach our kids to fear the right things in life and in doing so, face the right fears boldly.

"Mum, did I sin when I watched that movie?" "Mum, I said this to my friend, is God displeased?" "I want God to know I love Him, Mum." I love to hear my kids being concerned about what God thinks and how He feels about their actions. They are learning to fear God and live for His pleasure. We need to help our kids become God-conscious and not man-conscious.

A pure heart comes from embracing our emotions, acknowledging our weaknesses and having a heart that follows hard after God. Let's raise kids as God chasers, help them embrace their feelings and not shut them off or ignore them, and channel them in a way that brings God honour.

GRACE MARRIAGE COURSE (PLEDGE)

By Vincent Ang

On Saturday, 31 August, seven married couples attended the Grace Marriage Course (PLEDGE) at the newly completed L4 Shalom at Grace@BukitBatok (GII). The marriage course was conducted by Vincent and Marie Ang who have known each other since they were teenagers and have been married for the past 25 years. The full-day course started at 10am with a break for lunch and finished at 5pm, just in time for the Saturday evening service.

The Grace Marriage Course was missional in focus and there were two pre-believing couples who had signed up for the course. These couples invested a day of their weekend to improve their relationships and wanted to know more about becoming a better spouse to each other.

The PLEDGE programme covers essential topics such as purpose, love, relationship, communication, emotional connection and setting couple goals. Couples gained useful knowledge about love and respect, the 5 Love Languages, building intimacy, and conflict resolution. They also learned about God's plan for their marriage and key biblical principles to support and bring alignment to their lives as One.

The couples engaged in deep meaningful conversations with each other to talk about sensitive topics as well as share general insights, experiences and wisdom with the other participants. Everyone, including the facilitators, learnt something new in order to improve their own marriages through this dynamic and open interaction.

The day culminated in an emotional bonding time with one another, pledges of love and commitment and a beautiful renewal of marriage vows conducted by Pastor Benjamin Wong.

These are some of the feedback shared by the couples that day:

- The marriage course gives guidance and tools to couples looking to strengthen their marriage. Taking time out to work on your marriage is likely the most important thing you can do in life. Without a happy marriage, there is no happy family. – Gary Tan.
- This course can be taken repeatedly at different times of our lives with relevant takeaways. Same evergreen principles and areas of awareness can be highlighted, surfaced and reinforced, time and again. – Emma.
- The Pledge Marriage Course helped my husband and I to open a channel of communication with one another. Definitely a good start to continuing communication and building a stronger relationship with one another. – Course Participant.
- The genuine and spontaneous dynamics of Vincent and Marie greatly helped to create an open and relaxed atmosphere for even difficult and sometimes sensitive topics to be freely and openly aired – George Lee.
- I would recommend as it is really necessary to always do health checks for marriage. – Qiu Ling.
- PLEDGE reminded both of us of the beginning from where our courtship started, with its purpose for matrimony. – Course Participant.
- A small investment for couples to enhance the understanding on how to keep marriages active and enjoyable. – Course Participant.

BE PART OF #PUSHUPFORYOUTH2019 CHALLENGE—FROM NOW TO 8 NOVEMBER 2019

The inaugural #pushupforyouth 2018 social media fundraising campaign was a success—thank you everyone for your support! Your posts of group and individual videos of yourselves doing the 20 push-ups have encouraged many to donate to REACH Community Services. More importantly, it raised the awareness of the plights of at-risk and vulnerable youth in our community, encouraging many to come on board to help. The money raised went to fund programmes that help youth deal with their situations.

It is now time to work on #pushupforyouth2019. Once again, we need your support.

Our youth live in a complex world and encounter many formidable challenges. While stable families can deal with these challenges, many in vulnerable environments need our help. Statistics show that the number of suicides among boys aged 10 to 19 in Singapore last year were at a record high*. This is worrying, so let's do more for the youths in our community this year!

Come, join us as we support our youths on their journey, and help them to activate their strength and potential. Here's how you can take part in #pushupforyouth2019.

You can take a video of yourself doing 20 push-ups in various ways:

- ✓ By yourself
- ✓ With a good friend
 - Celebrate your friendship in a meaningful way
- ✓ With your cell group or family
 - Those who serve together, stays together!
- ✓ With your colleagues, or sports and interest groups
 - Enhance your team spirit

Or challenge yourself and attempt all four of the above!

Through this campaign, we hope to garner 1000 video posts on social media and raise $100,000 this year.

You can also be part of this movement by making direct donations via the QR code. Your donations will be matched, dollar for dollar, by the Bi-Centennial Community Fund matching grant! Visit www.reach.org.sg for more information. Thank you for being part of this movement!

Grace Filipino Ministry

NATIONAL FILIPINO LANGUAGE WEEK CELEBRATION

By Linger Caryl Abellana

On 25 August, the Grace Filipino Ministry (GFM) gathered for a special fellowship in Grace@BukitBatok(GII). We celebrated Linggo ng Wika (National Filipino Language Week) by putting on a brilliant display of cultural history through our national costumes, national songs and national symbol such as the Filipino flag.

A simple, yet heart-warming banquet featuring different Filipino delicacies brought back memories of our individual hometowns. In each other's company, the sense of nostalgia was overwhelming.

Each Grace Missional Group (GMG) was assigned to prepare a Tagalog song for the event, and the youth were in charge of judging the performances. It was an afternoon showcase of talents and unique presentations. Some groups danced along with their members. Another mesmerised everyone with a clever and creative selection of a Tagalog nursery song. With their elaborate props, choreography and presentation, the group captured the congregation's vote. But the ultimate winner was the group who presented a short and fun musical skit about a man who fell in love with the woman of his dreams.

As the event came to a close, everyone was reminded of the authenticity, resilience and harmony among Filipinos, and our colourful experiences through history. It was an encouraging celebration which whispered hope and encouragement to all the Filipino workers who are looking towards the future of their families with brave hearts and are fulfilling their dreams in a foreign land. It was as written in the scripture: "Therefore encourage one another and build each other up, just as in fact you are doing." —1 Thessalonians 5:11 (NIV)

Most importantly, it was a reminder for everyone that the source of our encouragement is in God alone. "The Lord himself goes before you and will be with you; he will never leave you nor forsake you. Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged."—Deuteronomy 31:8 (NIV)

Grace Missional Family—Region C

BI-YEARLY MID-AUTUMN FESTIVAL EVANGELISTIC LUNCH

By Madeleine Wong

On 7 September, Grace Missional Family (GMF) Region C held a banquet at SAFRA Jurong for 370 guests, 149 of whom were pre-believers. It was the bi-yearly Mid-Autumn Festival Evangelistic Lunch, and we saw the hand of God move in a most unprecedented way!

With every detail planned and the concerted effort of members inviting pre-believing guests, the Stage & Logistics Team received news of a change in our original guest speaker, Rev Oh Beng Kee.

Our GMF expedited and stepped up prayer, not just for Rev Oh's quick recovery, but also for the Lord to send a replacement speaker for the hour.

On the day of the event, Region C rejoiced as the Lord provided artiste Fang Zhong Hua (方钟桦), who captivated our guests with his story of how he turned from superstition and the worship of pagan gods to serving the true and living God! Pre-believers with a similar background of ancestral and pagan worship identified with Fang Zhong Hua's struggle with feng shui, fear and superstition. They laughed with him and enjoyed his wit and humour as he recounted his journey in getting to know Jesus who died for him.

The altar call led by our Regional Pastor, Pastor Lim Bee Ngor, was met with an overwhelming response as pre-believing guests stepped forward for prayer. There were a total of six salvations among many who stepped out desiring to know more about Jesus and to receive physical healing. A total of 149 pre-believers heard the Good News proclaimed in a non-church setting—a restaurant! Indeed it was a demonstration of the church in action as we went out to be the body of Christ ministering to the world out there!

It was an exciting event that did not stop with Fang Zhang Hua's songs, message and sharing! Bringing the whole event to a climax was a performance by our very own Gracian and guest artiste Priscilla Phang, who won the top gold award in the 2019 MediaCorp Golden Age Talentime, a programme widely viewed by pre-believers all over Singapore! Indeed, for the many who came wanting to meet and hear Priscilla, they got to hear and meet the Lord Jesus Christ, Priscilla's Lord and King to whom she gave all the glory!

Other highlights of the afternoon include a sharing by Brothers Cheng Tee Hiang and Steve Tan, who shared their own experiences of coming to Christ. Our pre-believing guests also got to play a Mid-Autumn piglets game. During the game, our missional and engaging emcees, Garry and Esther, invited them to open the door of their hearts so that Jesus can come in to dine with them, very much like what we were doing as a community, united and feasting in the love of the Lord!

We give thanks to God for His sovereign hand touching every single pre-believer present at this banquet, a celebration to make Jesus known! Indeed, we believe and trust that the seed of faith has been sown and that it is the beginning of God's work in every life whom He has called by name to this cultural-turned-Godly event! All glory to God!

Left: Artiste Fang Zhong Hua sharing his journey from darkness, superstition and fear to a new life in Jesus Christ

Right: Pastor Bee Ngor gave a resounding altar call that brought many to step out to be prayed for and to recite the sinner's prayer.

GRACE PRISON MINISTRY VOLUNTEER — MY PERSONAL JOURNEY

By Joseph Saw, Grace Prison Ministry

I was recruited into Grace Prison Ministry (GPM) more than 12 years ago. At that time, by the grace of God, I had just received a reprieve from a life-threatening illness. To fulfill my thanksgiving promise to the Lord to serve Him wherever He sends me, I signed up for the Prison Ministry, not knowing what it entails.

I was previously a Sunday Christian and have never served in any ministry. Had I been approached to join GPM through any other ways than through my promise, I would probably have refused, believing that I was not up to it. And I was actually not up to it—I was shy, weak in bible knowledge, scared to speak in public, and lacking in so many ways. The only thing I had of any use was my willingness to serve. To the Lord, it was enough. He provided all that was necessary. Looking back today, I find the transformation in me through serving quite astonishing; our Lord is truly more powerful than we can imagine.

Serving in GPM has brought me to meet people from different walks of life. In my eyes, before joining GPM, prisoners are dangerous people who should be avoided if possible. They are people who will rob or steal from me if I give them a chance, even after they have served their sentences. Serving in GPM allows me to get to know many of the prisoners personally and I realise that they are not very different from myself. The biggest difference is that they are being punished for their sins while I am not. I am reminded that I am a sinner like them. Jesus had to die for my sins, just as He had to for theirs. My feelings towards the prisoners changed and I now regard them as my brothers and sisters whom I love dearly.

In learning about God's Word, the research that I did as part of my GPM duties showed me how little I really knew about what God is saying to me. It made me want to find out more. It made joining a bible study class acceptable to me (where it wasn't previously). The prisoners have a lot of free time and many of them actually become very well-versed in the bible. Some of the questions they ask are quite deep. It made me become aware that as teachers of God's Word, we must prepare well, know it intimately and never let our guard down. We can only teach what is correct if we first learn it ourselves. Through all these, I get to further understand who God is and to grow in Him.

When I first joined GPM, I was not an outgoing person; in fact, I was quiet and shy. I had virtually no experience in leading or speaking to groups of people. I was very afraid of failure and rejection, but GPM gave me the opportunity to be a leader and speaker in the chapel services. Initially, I was often intimidated by my task, but God always gave me strength through the Holy Spirit, and through the support and encouragement of my fellow volunteers. Little by little, experience built up and in time, I grew to realise that it is a great honour to have been given this opportunity to share God's Word with others. It became not a challenge but a blessing to me. Today, I thank God for that opportunity to grow not only spiritually but also to develop into a more all-rounded person. GPM gives its volunteers opportunities in leadership and public speaking which few other ministries can offer.

I stepped down from GPM last year after more than 11 years, due to family commitments. As I look back, I consider serving in GPM an honour, a great privilege, and a blessing. Even though I no longer join the volunteers in Changi Prison, I still stay in touch and my heart still goes with them. I sometimes meet brothers I got to know when they were serving their time in prison. Although some still face many difficulties, many have reintegrated well into society and now attend church regularly. With the power of God, they have turned their lives around by rejecting sin and its path to destruction. It makes me glad and thankful when I think GPM has possibly played a small part in it. All praise to God!

3 REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD JOIN LOCAL MISSIONS

By Jasmin Low

The world is getting smaller and it is getting increasingly easier for people to uproot from their own homelands to find better jobs in other countries. As we all know, Singapore is blessed beyond measure; with an uncorrupted government body and a comparatively strong economy, Singapore seems to be the Promised Land for many. It is no wonder we have people from many different nations living in this tiny island. According to the Ministry of Manpower, as of 2018, the total foreign workforce in Singapore amounts to 1,386,000. That's equivalent to 1,630 Olympic-sized swimming pools filled with human beings!

Therefore, with all due respect, can I just say, "Wake up, Singapore!" Since there are possibly 1,386,000 human souls drowning in 1,630 swimming pools of darkness!

Grace Missions started our local missions project in March 2019. Through offering community services such as Traditional Chinese Medicine and physiotherapy services, English and computer classes, as well as special events, the ultimate aim of this ministry is to reach out to the migrant workers from various nations with the gospel of Christ. It can be highly impactful, especially when they take the gospel back to their homelands. But we need more volunteers in local missions and we need you! Here are 3 reasons why you should join us:

1. God says to love the foreigner residing in our land.

Leviticus 19:33-34 (NIV) says, "When a foreigner resides among you in your land, do not mistreat them. The foreigner residing among you must be treated as your native-born. Love them as yourself, for you were foreigners in Egypt. I am the Lord your God."

2. Whatever we do for these people, we do it for God.

Matthew 25:40 says, "The King will reply, 'Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me.'" When we think of this verse, we think of the poor people in third-world countries. What if I tell you that we have many in our own land? Let's face it: it's not easy leaving your home to start a life in a foreign land. What more having to adapt to life as someone of low social status? If we're honest, we place our migrant construction workers and foreign domestic helpers in the 'low social status' box. Imagine how that would make them feel. And is that God's intention for them? So get up close to a migrant worker and befriend them, listen to what they need, and love them into the Kingdom of God.

3. Preach the gospel to the world, here in Singapore!

Mark 16:15 says, "Go into all the world and preach the gospel to all creation." Well, isn't the world right here? In Singapore, we have people from Sri Lanka, India, Bangladesh, Myanmar, Philippines, Vietnam, China, Africa, Israel, Indonesia, Cambodia, and many more! Singapore is literally an Antioch!

We have an opportunity to preach the gospel to our fellow migrant workers this coming Christmas, and we need volunteers! If you are interested to help out, drop an email to missions@graceao.org.

WE ARE WITH YOU IN TIMES OF GRIEF

When someone close to our heart passes on, we can be overwhelmed by a complex array of emotions. As a Church, we want to be there with you to share and support you and your family through the difficult times of grief.

What to do when someone in your family passes away:

- a) Contact either of the two funeral service providers appointed by the Church:

Serenity Casket & Funerals (宁静殡葬礼仪馆)
 Person-in-charge: Mr Elson Chong (庄先生)
 Tel: 96186689
<http://www.serenitycasket.com.sg/>

Harmony Funeral Care (和谐殡葬礼仪)
 Person-in-charge: Ms Harmony Tee (郑小姐)
 Tel: 94892424/96211688
<https://www.singaporefuneralservices.sg/>

While the appointed funeral service providers look into the logistical arrangements, our pastors will focus on the needed pastoral care for the bereaved family.

- b) If Gracians prefer to engage other funeral service providers of their choice, they can keep the church informed of the bereavement by calling the Church Office at 64100800 during office hours (Mon–Fri, 9am–6pm).

Please check out our Grace Assembly app or our website at <https://www.graceaog.org/funeral-service-providers/> for more information. You may also approach any of our pastors to seek further clarification.

TITHE VIA PAYNOW

Great news! For greater convenience, you can now present your tithes and offerings via PayNow.

- Step 2: Ensure that the payee name is "Grace Assembly of God". Select Next.
- Step 3: Enter the amount you wish to give and "G1" for Grace@Tanglin or "G2" for Grace@Bukit Batok as the reference number.
- Step 4: Select Next, review your transaction and select Confirm.

Getting To Know...

By Yeoh Oon Chuan

DR LEE CHIAN CHAU

OCCUPATION: Family physician
MARRIED TO: Lee Siew Yeen
FATHER OF: Chloe and Michael
HOBBIES/PASTIMES: Exercise and eating
FAVOURITE FOOD: Too many to specify!

When did you first hear the Good News, and who shared it with you? What was your response?

This was way back in 1992. At that time, I was searching for the meaning to life and was exploring the various major religions we have in Singapore. Suffice to say, I found Christianity to be the most appealing. It was also around this time that my wife, who was an ex-classmate, invited me to her church towards the end of our Junior College days. After attending her church for several months, I responded to an altar call and gave my life to the Lord.

How has your Christian journey been like since? Share any challenges that you have encountered and also how you have been blessed.

Life has been an exciting journey since. There were several times where God called us (my family) to make huge life-changing decisions without any explanations. It was only after obeying that He showed us His reasons and the blessings that followed. An example of this was when God called me, out of the blue, to leave the GP practice which He had blessed me with. As a result of that, the trajectories of our four lives were completely changed which, on looking back, I can testify that it has been so much for the better.

When did you start attending Grace Assembly, and what do you like or love about this church? What ministries have you been involved in over the years?

My mother has been attending the Cantonese service at Grace@Tanglin (GI) for more than 20 years. She then moved to Grace@Bukit Batok (GII) for proximity reasons. When my family moved to be nearer her home, that was when my family started attending Grace Assembly of God.

Our first service at Grace Assembly was GII's first anniversary service.

The one thing I most appreciate about Grace Assembly is that she is a church where God is exalted, and the worship of God is our chief agenda.

Over the years, I have been involved in the Children's Ministry, Men's Bible Study and Executive Church Board (ECB). My wife and I also serve as marriage mentors in the Family Life Ministry.

Lee Chian Chau with his wife, Siew Yeen, and children Chole and Michael.

What was the impetus for your decision to contribute as a member of the Church Board?

Pastor Calvin Lee approached me one Saturday several years back to ask me to serve in the ECB. My answer to him then was that I did not feel qualified as I am very much a sinner. He asked me to pray about it. So I told God that He would have to show me very clearly if it was His will for me to serve in the ECB.

At that time, I was reading through the New Testament, chapter by chapter, in Chinese. My reading for that Sunday, the very next day, was Mark 2, and this verse popped right out at me. Mark 2:17b (NIV):

“我来本不是召义人，乃是召罪人”，i.e., I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners.

After my wife affirmed it, I texted Pastor Calvin my reply that Sunday afternoon.

How have your family members been supportive in this area?

I have been blessed with a wonderful wife and kids who have been nothing but supportive. I also have the great privilege of seeing my kids grow in their own walks and worship of God.

What is your vision for this church?

That we will always be a community that puts God first.

HOBBIES/PASTIMES: Reading

FAVOURITE FOOD: Japanese food

When did you first hear the Good News, and how were you disciplined?

I grew up in a Christian family and my parents were already attending Grace Assembly of God for quite some time. From when I was very young, they brought me up with good Christian values and taught me many things regarding Christ and the Bible. Growing up in church meant that I was surrounded by good role models such as my Sunday School teachers, and I believe that they were instrumental in helping me understand the gospels and what Christ did on the cross for me.

When did you decide to give your life to the Lord, and also why and how?

It was a few years later during primary school when I understood that each and every person will need to take the step of faith personally, and I accepted Christ in Sunday School.

How has your Christian journey been like since? Share any challenges that you have encountered and also how you have been blessed.

There have definitely been many ups and downs in my Christian journey. But I thank God that He has always guided me through the difficult times and has given me sufficient grace through these years.

One of the challenges that I have encountered is my eczema. It has always been something that I have been asking God to take away. While He has not done so yet, I see Him teaching and moulding me even as I struggle with this condition. I believe that I will not be the person I am today without this moulding from God. I have also realised that this condition, while bad to me, has helped me become a source of encouragement and understanding to others suffering from the same condition.

When did you start attending Grace Assembly, and what do you like or love about this church? What ministries have you been involved in over the years?

I have attended Grace Assembly since I was a child and I really like the people in this church. It always amazes and encourages me, seeing the effort and sacrifices the staff and the members put into doing God's work. I see this especially clearly during my service with the worship team and the service team (service managers, ushers, visuals, creative). The effort that each person puts in can really only be attributed to his or her love for God.

What was the impetus for your decision to contribute as a member of the Church Board?

I believe that God can work mightily through anyone as long as we are willing and available to serve. When I was asked to serve as a member of the Church Board, I definitely had some reservations as it was very different from the areas that I had been serving previously, and I also felt that someone with more years of experience would have been more suited. However, after praying about it, I felt God prompting me to agree to serve and to leave the outcome of it to Him. So here I am.

How have your family members been supportive in this area?

Since young, my parents have always supported me without question whenever I decided to serve. Even during exam periods or the like, they always respected and provided much support in my decision to serve. I am also grateful to my wife, who also serves in the Worship and Cell Ministries, for understanding and allowing me to serve even though it takes time away from the family.

What is your vision for this church?

My vision for the church is to see the entire church serving God together, both within the church as well as within the community, so that we will be a church that impacts our community, for God.

Tay Yi Hang with his wife, Gladys.

CHANGE OF BUS VENDOR AT GII

走出阴霾不是单单只提供给情绪低落及有疾病的人，而是我们追求领受神一层又一层的变化与突破在我的生命里，祂使我突破自己的缺点，突破自己封建的思想，加上在圣灵大能运行里，每一次的参与就越来越丰盛越来越不一样。

记得有一次我在祷告服侍一位姐妹时，有个很强的感动为她心里的惧怕祷告。第二天，在巴士上遇见这位姐妹，她认得我就是为

她祷告的那一位，并且就坐在我旁边，她与我分享当晚的经历，她确实是有惧怕在她里面，这也印证了圣灵启示的祷告。

吴欢玉姐妹

参加走出阴霾是很好的，尤其当我们在唱诗敬拜时，很快的感受到神同在和能力彰显在我们当中，所以每次都很渴望参加每一次的走出阴霾聚会。神的同在和能力是我们需要的，因为每当我们服侍和为人祷告的时候，都需要倚靠祂所赐的力量，需要祂指引我们，让我在服侍的时候，能作的更加好更有果效。

曾丽娟姐妹

印象最深的一次走出阴霾主题是远离焦虑，不再为小事抓狂。当晚，有位姐妹被按手祷告后开始发出奇怪的声音，不久便倒下。牧师继续为她祷告，她的眼神变换，身体不停颤抖一面喊叫「不要烧我」，口溢污秽之后昏睡过去。醒来后得著医治释放。那一次我经历耶稣的能力权柄制伏一切的鬼，医治各样的病，主必能胜过黑暗权势，拯救受捆绑的人。

生活难免会遇到一些困难挫折，当时我在工作上遇到一些瓶颈。感谢陈鸾卿牧师把真理生活化深入浅出让我学习到接受无法改变的事实，去做些有意义或使自己开心的事来转移注意力，积极锻炼，改变思维，加强自身技能并学习活在当下。不要杞人忧天，从中转念你会发现生活中的美好。因为耶和华必在你前面行，祂必与你同在，必不撇下你，也不丢弃你。不要惧怕，也不要惊惶。

另一次的走出阴霾，当牧师邀请要领受说新方言能力的可以到台前。我和那姐妹一同出去被传道、代祷员和牧师按手祷告和鼓励开声说方言。那晚之后在开始不断的实践操练过程中经历神迹奇事，感谢神赐下这属灵的恩赐，得著方言祷告的恩典。

所以无论你现在的人生是顺境或逆境，应当一无挂虑，只要凡事藉著祷告、祈求和感谢，将你们所要的告诉神。神所赐出人意外的平安，必在基督耶稣里保守你们的心怀意念。

极力推荐鼓励你前来参加走出阴霾，相信你在参与的过程中必得著更新心思意念和更深层的医治与释放。

恩典门训

每个信耶稣或跟随耶稣的人或门徒都知道大使命中的「使万民成为门徒」。西方有句谚语「魔鬼就在细节中」。简单解释：「原则我们同意，只是方法和细节就各有己见了」。

神召会恩典堂的中文事工有五个堂会，恩典一华语，恩典二华语，恩典一粤语，恩典一闽南语和恩典二闽南语。这五个堂会不单有地理位置的分别，其恩友的年龄和学习需要和能力也都各有各的不同。

一般的信徒以为信了耶稣，名字写在生命册上，已经预定了上天堂的「票」就好了！其实，这只是信耶稣或跟随耶稣的第一步。耶稣说：「我来了，是要使羊得生命，并且得的更丰盛」（约10：10）。在这，有两个重要的名词：「生命」和「丰盛」。我们对圣经越明白，会发觉我们离圣经中「生命」的定义是那么地远。尝过主恩的人也越发觉我们对「丰盛」生命的渴慕和追求。

这过程就要看每个人对跟随耶稣或信耶稣的定义了。人基本上有三个位格在影响著我们。思维、情感和选择。我们把他简称为「心」也可以。圣经启示：「人人都犯了罪，亏缺了神的荣耀」。成为门徒基本上就要改变我们的「心」成为神的「心」。

恩典堂的异象：「更多人更像耶稣」。我们像耶稣吗？有点像！但还是不像，离目标很远呢！恩典堂门训的平台有主日聚会、祷告会、主日学、小组，也包括事奉等的管道来塑造我们。如果我们信了耶稣「心还没改」像耶稣，我们还在「施工中」。短期间是OK的。但是，如果已经跟了耶稣几年，还没什么进展，那你就需要检讨检讨了。

不管如何，教会的使命就是要门训信徒，信徒的责任就是要被门训成为门徒。两心相应才能达到目的。

粤语堂 中秋节庆祝活动

粤语堂于9月15日举办了一个中秋节庆祝活动，有100多名恩友与荷兰村的社区的居民参与。当天虽然在烟雾笼罩之下，也没有影响参与者的心情。

我们在下午前往位于Upper Bukit Timah的旧福特车厂。它已被改换成为一个历史博物馆，展现第二次世界大战新加坡沦陷的情形。之后，我们继续前往位于Sungei Tengah一间农场餐馆，参与者可以参观有机农场种植方法，也可以亲自栽种一些蔬菜，感受有机蔬菜的种植方法，参观后，每人还赠送一包有机蔬菜。

晚上就在餐馆享用一顿丰富的晚餐，同时我们也让每一个参与者自制一个灯笼，当所有灯笼完成后，整个餐馆有一百多个灯笼一起把灯亮起来，再加上有居民表演助兴，姐妹唱歌作见证，牧师分享福音，将整个餐馆的气氛推至最高。我们欢乐愉快的度过一个美丽的中秋节，愿神赐福每一个人，也盼望居民有一天明白神的救恩。

感谢主的恩典！

同一个中秋（三）之穿月，是连续第三年借著中秋庆祝服侍在新加坡生活的中国群体的福音活动。今年我们看到近100人参加，其中30多名是12岁以下的儿童，而且他们大多数都是非基督徒。当晚节目流程非常丰富，有晚餐、唱歌、话剧、游戏等等。此外，也为年龄3到12岁的儿童准备制作灯笼的节目。秉著何时何地传福音的使命，我们邀请了以马内利基督教会主任牧师，王祎牧师（博士），借著「穿月」的主题分享「穿越罪与死的律」的信息，深信神的话语已经扎根在他们的心中，并按著神的时间结出福音的果子。感谢主！
